

This course is suitable for anyone assisting others in with their medication. It ensures a thorough understanding of how medication must be stored, recorded, dispensed and discarded. Making sure individuals take their medication in a safe way, is of vital importance when providing any degree of care.

Course Content:

- Introduction
- Current legislation
- The categories and forms of medication
- Side effects
- Routes of medication
- Correct administration practice
- Keeping records
- Storing medication
- Safe disposal of medication
- Do's and Don'ts

Duration: 3 hours

Certification:

Upon successful completion, each candidate will receive a certificate of completion.

Maximum group size:

16 candidates

Cost:

Please contact us for further details

